Explore Your Development Opportunities

We hope you'll explore the many opportunities outlined in this catalog, aimed at helping you grow and develop in your career at Wellstar. The following pages provide a reminder of our values and an overview of the 3E Development Model and 3E Development Activities to prompt your thinking about growth. Various education opportunities are available through eSource, SuccessFactors and LinkedIn Learning, including those specifically for nursing. These resources continually expand, so check back often.

Values

WHAT THEY ARE:

- We bring our mission and vision to life in our everyday work through our values – they are the qualities we embody at our best.
- Our values are compelling and memorable – nurturing our culture, the heartbeat of Wellstar.

HOW WE USE THEM:

- Our values are meant to be our mission and vision in action – they are the behaviors we demonstrate to enhance the health and well-being of every person we serve and deliver world-class healthcare to every person, every time.
- We will use our values every day to help us be intentional in our interactions with one another and with our patients and consumers.

WHAT THEY MEAN FOR YOU:

- Our values are who we are at our best. These are the words that guide and direct our organization, our culture and link to our brand.

We serve with compassion.

We recognize the significance of every interaction and give the kindness we all deserve.

IN ACTION:

- Listening actively and attentively
- Building trust in relationships by showing you care
- Engaging with other in ways that are meaningful to them

We pursue excellence.

We raise the bar and set new standards for the care we provide, the experiences we create and the solutions we deliver.

IN ACTION:

- Working together to achieve the highest level of quality and safety every time
- Gaining new skills to make our work even better
- Delighting our patients and consumers

We honor every voice.

We use the diverse perspectives, experiences and identities of our patients, consumers and team members to unlock our fullest potential.

IN ACTION:

- Seeking the opinions and ideas of others
- Making it easy for team members to contribute
- Celebrating the things that make us different

DEVELOPMENT AT WELLSTAR: The 3E Development Philosophy

At Wellstar, we use the “3E” development philosophy. This model groups development activities into three categories: Experience, Exposure and Education. 3E Development activities work best when coordinated together, speeding the development of the targeted behavior:

- 70% of learning and development takes place from real-life and on-the-job experiences, tasks and problem solving. This is the most important aspect of any learning and development plan.
- 20% of development should occur through exposure opportunities: feedback, coaching, mentoring and networking.
- 10% of development should occur through education: formal training classes, programs, eLearning courses, books.

This development tool kit provides an assortment of 3E ideas and suggestions for a variety of career development areas. Select those that support your Individual Development Plan (IDP).

Experience - 70%

- Stretch & Challenging Assignments
- Cross-Regional & Cross-Functional Projects
- Regional Rotations (Short Term)
- Job Changes
- Special Projects or Process

Exposure - 20%

- Feedback (including Peers)
- Mentoring
- Coaching
- Social Networking
- Job Shadowing

Education - 10%

- Courses
- Readings
- eLearning

3E Development Activities

Partner with your leader to identify activities that will be most meaningful to you and the needs of our organization.

Experience (70%)	Contribute to decisions outside your area of authority (work on a committee, partner with other teams).
	Ask your leader to delegate new work to you.
	Offer to take on new and challenging projects/assignments, including cross-functional assignments.
	Seek out ways to be a change agent for a specific initiative.
	Speak at internal or external events.
	Take on new and/or increased responsibilities.
	Learn the roles of others by shadowing or partnering on a project.
	Learn the roles of different departments within the business (shadowing, interviews).
	Become a subject matter expert or “go-to resource” on a new skill or process.
	Offer to train others on your team and create helpful tips, tools and resources to enhance learning.
	Offer to help onboard new team members to your team to help them assimilate quickly.
	Become a team member on a project where you have no expertise.
	Get actively involved with team or committee meetings.
	Introduce new and creative ways of working – (i.e., submit an EPMO Grassroots idea).
Work in groups to solve real business issues -- (i.e., implement EPMO Grassroots idea).
Cover for others' roles while they are out of the office.
Participate in external organizations – professional, social, community, committee, volunteer, etc.
Seek ways to network and interact with your team and other teams.
Investigate joining a Shared Governance Council, Professional Development Council, etc.
Seek out mentoring opportunities through internal and external sources.
Take on a temporary assignment in another department (i.e., cross-functional assignment).
Research and share best practices, trends and knowledge from other industry leaders in your everyday work. Synthesize the information to present to your leader and/or team.
Exposure (20%)	Seek out coaching and feedback regularly.
	Receive informal coaching from peers and colleagues.
	Seek feedback from others on performance and outputs.
	Seek mentoring and guidance from a leader or colleague with a greater depth of experience and knowledge.
	Share knowledge with others – what works, what doesn't, etc.
	Offer to start a book club among colleagues, reading a relevant book on a topic of mutual interest.
	Take turns hosting the chapter discussions. Click here for suggestions.
	Learn from industry associations and key figures.
	Build and learn from your network – physical and social (Yammer, LinkedIn, etc.).
	Follow and actively participate in leading industry blogs – join the conversation.
Gain more knowledge by downloading white papers and research papers.
Watch YouTube videos on relevant topics (TED talks, skill-building videos, etc.).
Participate in your facility's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DE&I) Council.
Education (10%)	Attend Wellstar-sponsored courses and workshops.
	Attend industry-specific conferences and events.
	Attend live and recorded webinars and podcasts.
	Take Computer-Based Learning (CBL) courses.
	Acquire professional qualifications and certifications.
	Attend a college or university to obtain a degree or certification.
Take self-directed courses (LinkedIn Learning).

Clinical Development Opportunities

Respiratory Care Intern

A respiratory care intern is a student enrolled in an accredited Respiratory Care program that wishes to gain experience in their chosen profession. The Intern must have completed their first semester of clinical practicum and be deemed competent in therapy skills by their school program director. The Intern works under the direct supervision of a licensed Respiratory Care Professional in the hospital setting providing patient care and assisting the respiratory care team.

The Intern is involved with oxygen therapy, respiratory medication administration, airway clearance therapy, patient education, and family interaction. This is the beginning step into the profession of respiratory therapy and the first step in the Wellstar Respiratory Care Professional Pathway.

Healthstream CE Unlimited

CE Unlimited through Healthstream offers continuing education and contact hours on a wide range of clinical topics. This resource is located on eSource on the left side of the Home page.
